Through the gifts of generous donors, the Veterans Education Fund was established to offer multiple scholarships. The contributors are devoted to the success of student veterans nationally and at Arizona State University. Awards will be based a student's financial need, level of effort, and the potential to complete his or her program of study. Awards are good for only one semester, but awardees may reapply each semester.

Scholarship awards: A maximum of $1,000 per student.

Number of awards: A minimum of three scholarships will be awarded per semester. Scholarships will only be awarded for the fall and spring semesters.

Eligibility requirements:

- Provide a valid DD-214/DD-215 (Member-4 copy) as proof of veteran status with an honorable discharge, or a letter from your commander confirming active/reserve/guard status in good standing.
- Be a continuing ASU student, with at least one completed fall or spring term prior to the term of application.
- Turn in a completed application by the deadline with all checklist items. Late or incomplete entries will not be accepted.

Applications will be accepted beginning Monday, August 1, 2022, and must be submitted by email to VeteranVEFapps@asu.edu. In the subject line of your email, use only your last name followed by "VEF Application." Veteran services at each of the campuses can assist with creating scanned documents for this scholarship, if necessary.

Application Deadline: Friday, September 30, 2022, 11:59 p.m.

Results will be announced by Friday, October 7, 2022.
