

New student veteran and dependent checklist

1. Applying for benefits

It takes approximately one to two months for approval, so start the process early. For additional details, refer to veterans.asu.edu/benefits/start.

PTVC tip: You can apply to ASU before receiving your Certificate of Eligibility or submitting your 1905 form to the VA. See step 2.

Complete the appropriate form based on your status (one of the three options listed below):

 If you are using your education benefits for the first time*	Please complete the following form
Veteran or service member	Form 22-1990 at vets.gov/education/apply/
Dependent spouse or child applying for transferred benefits (Transfer of Entitlement Program)	Form 22-1990e at vets.gov/education/apply/
Dependent spouse or child eligible for Survivors' and Dependents' Education Assistance Program (CH 35) or Chapter 33 Fry Scholarship	Form 22-5490 at vets.gov/education/apply/
 If you used benefits at a previous school and will transfer or have transferred to Arizona State University*	Please complete the following form
Veteran or service member	Form 22-1995 at vets.gov/education/apply/
Dependent spouse or child applying for transferred benefits (Transfer of Entitlement Program)	Form 22-5495 at vets.gov/education/apply/

 If you are a veteran applying for Vocational Rehabilitation, please complete the following form	Form 28-1900 at www.ebenefits.va.gov/ebenefits/apply Be sure you are applying for CH 31 Voc Rehab and not CH 36 Educational and Vocational Counseling.

* If you are using VA education benefits, the VA will mail you a copy of your Certificate of Eligibility (COE) after processing your application for benefits.

 For veterans using Vocational Rehabilitation, your VR&E counselor will provide a 1905 form if you are found entitled to Voc Rehab and a plan of service is developed to include education. This form is used in lieu of a Certificate of Eligibility.

2. Apply to Arizona State University

Processing the documents and forms you submit will take approximately one to two business days. The forms include detailed instructions, but if you have any questions, contact us at ASUVeterans@asu.edu.
