Program At-a-Glance

Overview: As part of The White House Joining Forces Initiative, Deloitte committed to doubling our veteran hiring over a 3-year period. Challenged to do more, we created the CORE Programs to help transitioning military service members translate their leadership abilities into a business context. The CORE Fundamentals Program is a high-energy, hands-on workshop designed to equip transitioning service members with personalized guidance and resources to identify and obtain an ideal career in the civilian workforce.

"In the military, we're always focused on the mission, our troops, and other things in ourselves as people. That was the main key that (Deloitte) really stated at the beginning was they're here to help us focus on ourselves, how to advertise and brand ourselves and just present ourselves in a better manner to companies and the corporate world." – Brian Copeland, Arizona State University CORE alum

"Take the step forward to do it. Dedicate your time to become better.” – Michael Armendariz, Arizona State University CORE alum

"The curriculum was spot on and the presented resources were effective tools for transitioning officers. This is just the type of thing Vets need to hear before transitioning...”

– CORE alum

"I got more out of those 5 hours than I did in 5 days of TAP.” – CORE alum

Outcomes: Leveraging Deloitte’s award-winning leadership curriculum, CORE Fundamentals uses an immersive environment to enable veterans to achieve the following outcomes:

1) Know yourself by identifying your unique strengths and experiences to build a personal brand
2) Know your fit to help target career opportunities based on your personal brand, interests and priorities
3) Know who can help by de-mystifying networking and exploring the power of networks
4) Tell your story in a way that resonates with others, including potential employers
